

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

RHONDA BEERTHUIS,

Plaintiff,

v.

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:07-cv-344

HONORABLE PAUL L. MALONEY

Magistrate Judge Carmody

Order Adopting the R&R without Objection;
Affirming the Commissioner's Denial of Disability Benefits;
Terminating the Case

Pursuant to this court's Local Civil Rules and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), this matter was automatically referred to the Honorable Ellen S. Carmody, United States Magistrate Judge, for a Report and Recommendation ("R&R").

Title 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) provides, "Within ten days after being served with a copy [of an R&R], any party may serve and file written objections to such proposed findings and recommendations as provided by rules of court." Likewise, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72 provides that "[w]ithin 10 days after being served with a copy of the recommended disposition, a party may serve and file specific, written objections to the proposed findings and recommendations." See Deruso v. City of Detroit, 121 F. App'x 64, 66 n.2 (6th Cir. 2005) ("The Rule requires parties to file objections to a magistrate's report and recommendation within ten days of the time the report is filed.") (citing FED. R. CIV. P. 72(a)); Rodger v. White, 1990 WL 95624, at *2 (6th Cir. July 11, 1990) (“Ordinarily, parties must file objections and exceptions to the magistrate’s report within ten days of its issuance.”) (citing 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)).

Clerk’s Office docket records indicate that the R&R was issued on Friday, July 25, 2008.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6 begins, “In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by the local rules of any district court, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included.” FED. R. CIV. P. 6(a). Rule 6 further provides, “When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 11 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.” FED. R. CIV. P. 6(a).

Thus, the ten-day objection period began on Monday, July 28, 2008. The court excludes Saturday, August 2 and Sunday, August 3. The sixth day of the ten-day period was Monday, August 4. Thus, the ten-day period for filing objections expired at midnight on Friday, August 8, 2008. Beerthuis did not file objections before that time, nor did she seek an extension of time in which to do so.

As the United States Supreme Court has held,

The statutory provision we upheld in Raddatz [447 U.S. 667 (1980)] provided for de novo review only when a party objected to the magistrate’s findings or recommendations. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). To the extent de novo review is required to satisfy Article III concerns, it need not be exercised unless requested by the parties.

Peretz v. US, 501 U.S. 923, 939 (1991) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).¹

Furthermore, the failure to file timely specific objections obviates not only de novo district-

¹

See, e.g., Johnson v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec., 2007 WL 2292440, *1 (N.D. Ohio 2007) (“The Federal Magistrates Act requires a district court to conduct a de novo review only of those portions of the Report to which an objection has been made.”) (Gwin, J.).

judge review of the R&R, but all district-judge review. Again in the words of the Supreme Court,

In 1976, Congress amended § 101 of the Federal Magistrates Act, 28 U.S.C. § 636, to provide that a United States district judge may refer dispositive pretrial motions, and petitions for writs of habeas corpus, to a magistrate, who shall conduct appropriate proceedings and recommend dispositions. The amendments also provide that any party that disagrees with the magistrate's recommendations "may serve and file written objections" to the magistrate's report, and thus obtain de novo review by the district judge.

* * *

Petitioner first argues that a failure to object waives only de novo review, and that the district judge must still review the magistrate's report [regarding the case-dispositive matters listed in § 636(b)(1)(A)] under some lesser standard. However, § 636(b)(1)(c) simply does not provide for such review. This omission does not seem to be inadvertent, because Congress provided for a "clearly erroneous or contrary to law" standard of review of a magistrate's disposition of certain pretrial matters in § 636(b)(1)(A) [essentially, non-dispositive motions]. Nor does petitioner point to anything in the legislative history of the 1976 amendments mandating review under some lesser standard. We are therefore not persuaded that the statute requires some lesser review by the district court when no objections are filed.

Thomas v. Arn, 470 U.S. 140, 141-42, 149-50 (1985) (emphasis added, citation to enacting legislation omitted).

In any event, the court finds the R&R's outcome and rationale to be sound.² For the reasons

Accordingly, district judges in our circuit routinely adopt R&Rs without additional written analysis where the parties have not timely and specifically objected:

"It does not appear that Congress intended to require district court review of a magistrate's factual or legal conclusions, under a de novo or any other standard, when neither party objects to those findings." * * * Because neither party filed timely objections to Magistrate Judge Pepe's Report and Recommendation . . . this Court need not conduct a review.

Russell v. Caruso, 2007 WL 3232126, *2 n.3 (W.D. Mich. 2007) (Maloney, J.) (quoting Brown v. US, 2007 WL 2156283, *1 (E.D. Mich. 2007) (Gadola, J.) (quoting Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150 (1985))). See also Veltkamp v. Comm'r of Soc. Sec., 528 F. Supp.2d 716, 718 n.2 (W.D. Mich. 2007) (Maloney, J.); Hart v. Ridge Tool Co., 2007 WL 1983688, *2 (N.D. Ohio 2007) (Nugent, J.); Montalvo v. GMC, 2006 WL 1888704, *1 (N.D. Ohio 2006) (Zouhary, J.) ("Neither party objected . . . * * *

explained by the R&R, Beerthuis's "bulging disks", headaches, and memory difficulties did not render her disabled between the alleged disability onset date (December 1, 2001) and her date last insured. Specifically, substantial evidence supports the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ")'s determination that Beerthuis suffered from post-concussion syndrome and degenerative disc disease of the lumbar spine, and that these impairments rendered her unable to perform her past relevant work but left her able to work at a significant number of jobs despite her limitations.

Thus, the Court declines to review the Magistrate's report.");

Mich. 2003) (Lawson, J.) (where party's objections to R&R were untimely, court stated, "[T]he failure to object to the magistrate judge's report releases the Court from its duty to independently review the motion [considered in the R&R].").

ORDER

Accordingly, having reviewed the complaint, the administrative record, and the Magistrate Judge's R&R, the court ADOPTS the R&R and AFFIRMS the Commissioner's denial of Social Security Disability Insurance Benefits.

The complaint is DISMISSED.

This case is TERMINATED.

This order is final, but it is not appealable. See Harris v. Detroit Pub. Schs., 245 F. App'x 437, 442 n.6 (6th Cir. 2007) ("[A] party's failure to object to the recommendations of a magistrate judge constitutes a waiver of the right to appeal.") (citing US v. Walters, 638 F.3d 947, 949-50 (6th Cir. 1981)).³

IT IS SO ORDERED this 13th day of August 2008.
